

Old Time of service: It is not far Until that nippy day,
When I may light a fresh cigar And throw a stump away.

PERSONAL.
Miss Tillie Taylor, of Lexington, is visiting Mr. C. R. Bradley, Clinton street.

Col. John A. Hearn, from the State at-large, is in the city, the guest of Col. Sheehan.

Col. and Mrs. J. Stoddard Johnston returned from Atlanta by the C. & O. train Sunday night.

Mr. John Bratz and his daughter, Miss Lizzie Bratz, of Springfield, Ill., are visiting friends in the city.

John R. Green, of Louisville, after spending a few days with his father and mother, (Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Green), in South Frankfort, has returned to his home.

Messrs. Grant Green and Prather Zane, of Louisville, are spending the Christmas with the family of C. S. Green, in South Frankfort, and are enjoying the society of our Frankfort girls amazingly.

There will be a called meeting of the City Council on Thursday evening (Dec. 28, 1882), at 7 o'clock, P. M., the object being to settle up all accounts made by the present board.

The gas light is now perfect in nearly all parts of the city. The company, after no little trouble and a good deal of expense, is now provided with sufficient water to purify its gas, and to enable it to give a satisfactory light in every burner where the pipes are in order.

Mrs. Margaret Conner Norman, relict of the late Benjamin Norman, died at the old family residence in Boone county on the 24th inst., in the 74th year of her age.
She was the last surviving daughter of the Rev. Lewis Conner, one of the pioneer Baptist ministers in Northern Kentucky.

The new Council will assemble next week, and we suppose will take steps to give us a new theatre or Opera House.
If we are to have this desirable feature at the expense of the tax-payers, the scooner the better. The only stipulation we have to make is that it be handsomely done. Let us have a place of resort that will be safe, comfortable and handsome.

Saturday night, as a party of young men from Alton were leaving the city in a vehicle, they concluded to join the Christmas halleluiah by firing their pistols, and in doing so a young man named James Parker received a dangerous and painful wound in the elbow of the left arm. He was taken to the residence of Dr. U. V. Williams, where he was kindly cared for, and his wound properly dressed. Dr. Williams says it is almost exactly like the wound received by Mr.
Charles Taylor.

The complete success of Mrs. Black-burn's dinner to the convicts will doubtless have the effect to provide a similar entertainment for every Christmas.
Humanitarians generally, and friends and relatives of these poor creatures, will always be glad to make such contributions as were made for this occasion. The good words, and substantial aid which Mrs. Blackburn received in this benevolent work has been especially gratifying, because it shows there are many persons in Kentucky who can sympathize with the distressed, no matter how depraved or how criminal they may be.

Saturday night, in the absence of Mrs.
Lyons and her daughter, a negro obtained entrance to their house, and was in the act of robbing it when they returned.
They discovered a light in an upper room, and thought the room was on fire, but as soon as they entered, the light disappeared, and they concluded rightly that they had a visitor. An alarm was given, but before the police appeared the burglar came down stairs and passed out the front door, making rapid speed in the direction of Battle Alley. A colored man was arrested, but was not identified as the robber, and Marshal Hyde dismissed him. The burglar was of medium height, and had on a light colored cap and light clothes.

Mr. George L. Payne, of the firm of Payne & Perry, has accepted an appointment as Special Agent of the Phoenix Insurance Company of London for the States of Kentucky and Tennessee, and will have his headquarters at Frankfort.
The business of the firm of Payne & Perry will be conducted as usual, Mr.
W. Payne, who has been a valuable assistant in the establishment, has been taken an invaluable loss.

Stolen—$20 REWARD—From my stable, situated near the old depot, near Frankfort, Ky., a small gray mare, chunky and well built, 6 or 7 years old.
Had on steel toed shoes, and was rough shod all around; about 15 hands high. I will give $10 reward for her delivery to me in Frankfort, or $20 for the delivery of a horse to me and the capture of the thief.
JOHN LANGFORD.

Mr. Charles E. Taylor is not yet able to resume his duties in the telegraph office.

There was a pleasant party at the residence of Jno. W. Rodman, Esq., Tuesday night, given in honor of the Messrs. Hindman, who are his guests.

Dr. U. V. Williams had the good luck to win a quarter of the premium beef at Collins' raffle Monday night. The steak he sent us was as tender and juicy as the bear meat we received from Burkhardt.

A great many fine articles that were not disposed of at private sale were raffled for on Monday night. The handsome dressing case at Hughes & Chiles', valued at $25, was won by Mr. Clarence Kendall.

Some merchants complain that they had a limited trade on Christmas, and others say they did as well as usual. Friday and Saturday of last week were gloomy and disagreeable days, and people were not out in as full force as they would otherwise have been.

Mrs. Dr. W. H. Hall is prepared to fill orders for flowers for the coming year.
She has a fine yield of Marshal Neil roses, camellia japonicas, and other desirable and beautiful flowers. Orders for bouquets, boutonnières, and cut flowers may be left at Dr. Hall's drug store.

Selbert had an astonishing trade in silverware and jewelry. He was kept busy for the whole week preceding Christmas day in engraving articles sold by him. He says he had little rest day or night, but is grateful to his customers for their kind patronage, and is none the worse for his labor.

Buy something at Selbert's if you want a chance in or of his January prizes.

Christmas evening was made delightful for the Feeble-Minded children by an entertainment at which the State officers and a number of visitors from the city were present. Dr. Stewart had provided large Christmas trees, which were loaded with presents, and beautifully arranged.
Every child received a present, and was made supremely happy. A series of tableaux were admirably given, and there were recitations and music by the children.

Mr. Chas. K. Ballard, of Owensboro, and Miss Sallie Stillfield, of this city, were married at the residence of Mr.
John Henderson, Tuesday morning, at half-past seven o'clock, Rev. L. Young, officiating. The affair was quietly conducted in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties.
The happy couple left on the 8:15 train for a trip to Louisville. They have a host of friends in this vicinity, who wish them a long and happy future.

The fire at the Christian Church Sunday morning about seven o'clock had its origin from the furnace. The flames broke out in the floor, near the front of the church, and in a little time the building was so filled with smoke that it was hard to locate. The fire department arrived in good time, and acted with judgment in putting out the flames. A part of the floor, the new carpet, and the walls and ceiling were damaged to the extent of about $1,500, which is fully covered by insurance in companies represented by Payne & Berry and Judge W. H. Sneed.

The terrible encounter between George Portwood and a town officer named Laughlin, at Lawrenceburg, Saturday night, was one of the most desperate affairs that ever transpired in the State.
Portwood was a saloon-keeper, and Laughlin went in to arrest him upon some charge. They approached close enough to seize the lappels of each other's coats, and then began firing with six-shooters.
Laughlin was killed instantly, but Portwood, with two or more mortal wounds, survived until Monday. He was shot through both lungs, and in other parts of the body. A gentleman from Lawrenceburg says that shots were fired by other parties, but it is not known who.

The little town was greatly shocked over the affair, as it well might have been, but it is not altogether unaccommodated to such scenes of blood.

On account of the conspicuous absence of the toy pistol, there were fewer accidents than usual on Christmas, but we noticed a rather free use of more dangerous fire arms. A great many very large pistols were used, and some danger done. Some reckless persons fired two shots in the direction of the residence of Mr. R. T. Chiles, in South Frankfort.
One bullet passed through the window of his mother's room, and another entered the woodwork of his porch.

DISTINGUISHED II NOR.
[From the Lexington Observer]

The honor roll in the public schools for the month of December will appear in our next issue, when Miss Irene West, of City School No. 2, will find her name recorded with a first honor for the thirteenth time in as many consecutive school months. She has never failed to take a first honor for every month she has been in school, this school year and last.

Frankfort has reason to be proud of this young lady as the daughter of one of her highly respected citizens, Mr. E.
C. Went.

Frankfort, Ky., a small gray mare,

CALDWELL-BOWDEN.

[From the Herald-Enterprise, Dec. 20, 1882.]
This morning, at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Kate K. Bowden, eldest daughter of Judge James H. Bowden, will be married to Henry M.
Caldwell, one of the proprietors of this paper, of which he is also business manager.
The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Jas.
H. Morton, at the home of the bride, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.
Miss Bowden is one of Russellville's most lovable young ladies, distinguished for her amiable and bright intellect. Mr. Caldwell's admirable qualities, both of mind and heart, are known to a large circle of acquaintances, and these who know him best admire and respect him most.
Here's to the very good health; may they live long and prosper.

A LOSS PREVENTED.

Many lose their beauty from the hair falling or fading. Parker's Hair Balsam supplies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness and is an elegant dressing.

BOARDING—Large, nicely furnished rooms, with first-class board, at the Weitzel Hotel building, opposite State House square.

FOR RENT—The house in which I reside, in South Frankfort.

GUY BARRETT.

The horn brigade made Saturday, and Monday nights hideous. The maker of the wind instruments was heartily anathematized, and there was a general expression of opinion that all the young performers could have celebrated the birthday of Christ better by being in bed.

THE STORY WITHOUT AN END.

At the city of New Orleans, La., on Tuesday, November 14th (a few Tuesdays), under the sole management of Gen's G. T. Beauregard de La., and Jubal A. Early of Va., the 150th Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery occurred, and these historically famous warriors acted over their own signatures, a fac simile of which is published in the advertisement of the Company, that all was fairly done. It resulted as follows: Ticket No. 52,116 drew $75,000, the first capital prize—J. M. Dixon, an insurance Agent of Ennis, Tex., had one-third, as did also Mrs. Josephine Miller, No.
319 E. 52d st., New York city. Among others, No. 83,355 drew the second prize $25,000—sold in thirds—two (2) to Charles Mowatt, a sailor on the schooner "Lucy May," of Newburyport, Mass.; and one fifth to Charles New, a journeyman cigar maker, No. 60 New Church st., New York city; one to Hermann Tossberg, also in New York city. Ticket No. 33,719 drew the third prize of $10,000, two-fifths of which were held by W. T. Clarke, a real estate agent in S. 9th st., Philadelphia, and one by Emil Wiegand, No. 1142 Magazine st., New Orleans.
There were many others, but some don't want their names published; but this is enough to encourage others.

The Christian Church was insured with Payne & Berry, in the Phoenix of London, $4,000; with W. H. Sneed, in the Queen, $4,500. The loss will be pro rated between them.

A BIG SUCCESS.

"My wife was in bed two years with a complication of disorders her physicians could not cure, when I was led to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. It was a big success.
Three bottles cured her, at a cost of a dollar and fifty cents, and she is now as strong as any woman."—R. D., Buffalo.

BEYOND THE RIVER.

Away Across the Mississippi is Held a Convincing Conversation.
"I tell you, sir, that they are one of the nearest combinations ever produced, and my experience of that sort of thing has been wide enough to entitle by judgment to some respect."
"Oh, I don't know," responded the first speaker's friend, with a little yawn, as though he didn't take much interest in the subject, "I have never been able to see much difference in those things.
They are all pretty nearly the same size, and made of about the same stuff."

The talk of Captain, the foregoing is a fragment of a conversation that took place in the snug office of Dr. M. P. Flowers, one of the leading physicians of the State, who followed up the vein in which he had introduced it substantially in these words:
"Nonsense, that is the rigmarole of a boy, or rather of a man who either doesn't know or care what he says. Those things, as you call them, are just as different as the moon is from green cheese.
Now, liniments, lotions and ointments are very good in most cases for the relief of pain or inflammation. But, in the first place they are useless.
They soil the hands and the linen, besides being about as good for aches when they are used as water is for a headache. I have used them on my patient, and I have tried it on myself for an attack of Pneumonia, and in all cases relief has followed in from three to forty-eight hours. The old plasters are stage coaches—the Capcine is a telegraphic

Rheumatism, Lumbago, retarded action
